Enamel & ceramic

Classy stuff, enamel. And ceramic. Decorative but low-key. Clearly expensive. But with nothing to prove. If enamel jewellery were a man, it would have a big, swinging... sense of self. And ceramic is playful, sculptural, graphic and art dealer-y. From Pomellato's pom-poms to Solange Azagury-Partridge's slightly haunting wit, these design giants yet again show themselves to be fine jewellery players. AR
